UNDER THE CARE OF THE JESUITS

3400 SE 43RD AVENUE

PORTLAND, OREGON 97206

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

MAY 1, 2022

A Message from the Pastor

Theologian, storyteller, and poet John Shea captured three of Jesus' resurrection appearances in a poem—the appearance to Mary Magdalene where she mistook him for a Gardener; the appearance to Peter by the Lake of Tiberias where Jesus became the questioner and healer; and the appearance to the two Disciples of Emmaus when Jesus appeared to them as a stranger. Listen to John Shea's lines about this weekend's gospel.

In Peter's dreams
the cock still crowed.
He returned to Galilee
to throw nets into the sea
and watch them sink
like memories into darkness.
He did not curse the sun
that rolled down his back or the wind that drove
the fish beyond his nets.
He only waited for the morning
when the shore mist would lift
and from his boat he would see him.
Then after naked and impetuous swim
with the sea running from his eyes
he would find a cook
with holes in his hands
and stooped over dawn coal
who would offer him the Kingdom of God for breakfast.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE:

The story of Peter's triple denial of Christ is recorded in each of the four gospels. Only in John's gospel do we have this beautiful account of an early morning breakfast by the Lake of Tiberias; an after-meal walk along the beach during which Jesus asks his question to Peter three times, "Do you love me?"; and Jesus reissuing his invitation and call to Peter, the one who will be the Shepherd when Jesus ascends to the Father. We are so fortunate, as a faith community, to have this story of denial, betrayal, forgiveness, healing, and mission by the original "Rock" of Jesus' apostles—Peter. It is like watching one of the great golfers of the world miss a two foot put on the greens of Augusta. Our response is—well, even I could do that.

When someone points out that "It is the Lord" to Peter, his love for Christ impels him to jump into the water and make for shore to be with him. His actions in this story express his love for the Teacher. But Jesus knows that memory and shame of Peter's denials during Christ's passion, will prevent him from the new life and hope and mission that are the resurrection. And so, Jesus asks Peter, "Do you love me?" three times. Peter had denied his Lord three times and it was three times that Jesus gave Peter an opportunity to affirm his love. Jesus, in his gracious forgiveness of Peter and of us, gives Peter and us a chance to wipe out any memory of denial by a threefold declaration of love.

But Peter and our response brings us a mission—"Feed my lambs. Feed my sheep." We can prove that we love Jesus only by loving others. Love is the greatest privilege in the world, but it brings the greatest responsibility. So how can we, today, feed Christ's sheep? I believe we demonstrate our love for Jesus and feed his sheep every time parents bring children into this world and discover the meaning of sacrificial love—when parents put their likes and desires and comforts aside to raise their children—who can bring them great joy and great challenge, at times. I believe we demonstrate our love for Jesus and feed his sheep every time we care for an elderly parent or an ailing spouse or friend; every time we welcome the stranger in our church or community; every time we don't simply stand in judgment of the poor and the hungry all around us but feed them, listen to them, show compassion for them, stand with them, become a voice they do not have, share a power they simply do not enjoy. I believe we demonstrate our love for Jesus and feed his sheep every time we choose courage over fear, hope over despair, love over resentment and hate, life over death. I believe we demonstrate our love of Jesus and feed his sheep every time we gather as a community and it changes us; every time we hear God's Word and it changes us; every time we share the Eucharist and it changes us; every time we go forth, at the end of Mass, to do 'The Great Command' and it changes us.

On this Third Sunday of Easter, the question Jesus asked Peter is also addressed to each and every one of us—"Do you love me?" And we respond with Peter, "Lord, you know all things. You know that we love you." And Jesus renews his invitation to us, "Then feed my lambs. Feed my sheep."

Congratulations to all of our students celebrating their First Communion this weekend! We are so proud of you. Welcome to the supper of the Lord! On Wednesday, May 4th, our school Mass will celebrate all of our students who made their First Communion this weekend. What an honor to share in the Eucharist together!

Our amazing Ignatians raised $851.73 for Jesuit Relief Services to help the people of Ukraine during this difficult time. Way to go, Gators!

All of our middle school students were able to participate in an Outdoor School experience this past week thanks to the generosity of a grant from the Gray Family Foundation. Our 6th & 7th graders traveled by bus to Camp Namanu for two whole days of outdoor learning with high school camp counselors and delicious dinners. Our 8th graders traveled by bus to Camp Howard for two whole days to participate in outdoor learning stations utilizing many of our talented parents sharing their knowledge and expertise. We are blessed to have all of our middle school students experience deeper, hands-on science lessons!

Our school will have its first dine-out opportunity on Monday, May 2nd at Chipotle at 3582 SE Powell Blvd. from 4:00-8:00 PM. On May 19th, our school will have an 80's themed jog-a-thon! Thank you for supporting our school through fundraising efforts and the blue envelopes!

We have some staffing changes for the upcoming school year. If you know of any middle school teachers for English Language Arts or Social Studies, a third grade teacher, or an instructional assistant, please send them our way.

We are in the process of finalizing the contracts and schedule for the playground project. This summer, we will be able to put in the new surfacing which will consist of green turf and blue and tan poured-in-place materials. Preschool play equipment including a climbing gator will be installed outside of the preschool classroom. A new concrete walkway and curving bench with planter behind will extend from the school doors by the current playground to the tree next to the front doors.

May we joyfully shine and spread the Good News throughout the Easter Season! Jesus said to him, "I am the way and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. John 14:6.
